The July meeting of Cub Pack 950C was held recently in Torrance Park with a picnic. Cubmaster Bill Honabach opened the meeting by presenting the history of the flags.

Assistant Cubmaster Rummage had to resign from the pack as he has moved from the area. Two den mothers, Mrs. Gonzales and Mrs. Perea, also are retiring from their positions.

Awards presented for the month included: Craig Allan, bob cat pin; David Brown, Webelos on lion and wolf badge, with one gold, one silver arrow; Carlo Perea, Webelos with silver on wolf and silver on lion; David Parsons, bear badge with one gold and one silver arrow; and Mike Carr, silver arrow on wolf.

The two-year service pin was presented to Raymond Gilchre. The attendance banner was won by Den Five.

Cub Pack 953C

Cub Scouts in Pack 953C recently enjoyed a day at Cubland, Firestone Scout Camp, for a pack meeting. Swimming, hiking and a picnic lunch highlighted the day-long family outing.

The pack participated in the Jamborally July 18 at El Nido Park. The pack also toured the Mattel Toy Corp. last month.

A family camp has been planned for August, according to Cubmaster Jim Harrison.

Mike Armen has received his lion badge and handbook. Guy Marshall has been given an assistant denner badge.
